

Three years ago I unexpectedly lost my 20 year old nephew to a car accident. There was a song by the Katinas that I heard on KLOVE that helped me get through it and realize that even when times are so hard, GOD loves us so much and we need to trust in him totally. KLOVE has been such a blessing and so uplifting to me in times of deep depression and sorrow.

I strongly believe that KLOVE helps the community to gain inner peace and treat each other as Christ wants us to treat each other. With so much road rage, violence in schools, broken marriages, sicknesses, child abuse, drug and alcohol abuse, it would be an unthinkable and serious mistake to displace it by an LPFM broadcaster that provides other programming. This will not help people to have hope. Knowing GOD is to have hope and I can't imagine living without hope (GOD).

I truly believe KLOVE touches so many lives in such a positive way that it is in the public's best interest to continue the broadcasting.
